

Welcome to the MSPexchange!

So you want to be an Entrepreneur and start your own MSP. Or you are looking for the missing step to install a plugin for your RMM tool. Heck what does RMM stand for? This wiki is the ultimate resource for MSP's by MSP's. What this means is, it has been created and is maintained by staff in the MSP business for the improvement shared knowledge can bring. The base goal is to provide a location for MSP related knowledge to be shared so businesses and staff can grow.

Now how do you use this resource?

1. Use the search at the top right for fast results. the wildcard character is * Dokuwiki will not do partial searches must be exact or have the wildcard character. Example: *wiki OR wiki
2. If you like browsing. Check the sidebar to the left for a structured view of the pages.
